Streams in the Desert - April 16th's scripture and message was used by God to confirm we were being sent to Austria. The rest is history.

"Tear into small pieces any itinerary for the journey which your imagination may have drawn up. Nothing will fall out as you expect. Your guide will keep to no beaten path. He will lead you by a way such as you never dreamed your eyes would look upon. He knows no fear, and expects you to fear nothing while HE is with you."

Those were very specific instructions. So far, nothing we have done fits into the normal Christian mold, and our continued success depends on obeying the Holy Spirit's every command. Going out into the world and living the Christian life sure looks different, and maybe that's what the world needs to see. After all, people know what religion looks like.

For several years Monika and I have been troubled by the things we have observed here in Austria. There are so many ethnic and cultural challenges in Vienna, and children are always the losers at the end of the day. Many of them cannot speak proper German, and their parents aren't much help since they are not proficient either. Many teachers become quite frustrated and discouraged. We also see many young and intelligent people with little prospect of finding meaningful employment. It seems the government's only solution is to raise taxes and throw more money at the problem. Monika and I have been concerned and praying for these overwhelming difficulties. Recently, God revealed a plan to begin making a difference. Sound crazy? Wait just a minute. Egypt's famine was too great to overcome until God gave Joseph a plan. The children of Israel thought they would forever be slaves to Pharaoh until God gave Moses a plan; and what about Nehemiah rebuilding the walls and Ezra the temple? They weren't contractors. God is in the business of using ordinary people to prove HIS greatness and love for people. Why can't God give us a plan to help Austrians?
