Who can ever praise God half enough? -Ps. 106:2

Dear TEAM,

We are back in the ministry groove, and everything is up and running again. Monika and I had been wondering what to do about E-club; do we start another class? Where could we have classes? We decided to commit it to prayer and do nothing. We were thinking, "If God is really in this, HE will do something that will enable us to move forward." That turned out to be a good move. One evening, a mom from the first class called asking when we are going to start again? Monika said we weren't sure, adding that we really do not have a place to meet. She enthusiastically offered her husband's business lobby on Saturdays. Further confirmation came in the addition of two young ladies wanting to learn how to teach E-club classes. With only the mom contacting her friends, we now have two full classes of eager youngsters ready to experience E-club.

31 years of marriage & still amazed

Sunday morning fellowship

If that wasn't exciting enough, we were offered a place for our Sunday morning Bible studies. It is private, quiet, and plenty big enough for us to invite others. One of the newer girls joining us has offered to lead worship, which is something we have been longing for. It just seems that on one day, God has answered years of prayer. We have so much to be thankful for.

One thing I have been reminded of through this journey is the importance of staying the course no matter how things look. In one moment of time, God can change everything and it is usually when you least expect it.
